⇦ Lower risk						Higher risk ⇨

The risk indicator is rated from 1 (low) to 7 (high). The rating reflects how much the value of the fund's assets goes up and down. A higher risk generally means higher potential returns over time, but more ups and downs along the way.

To help you clarify your own attitude to risk, you can seek financial advice or work out your risk profile at https://sorted.org.nz/.

Note that even the lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment, and there are other risks that are not captured by this rating.

This risk indicator is not a guarantee of a fund's future performance. The risk indicator is based on the returns data for 5 years to 30 September 2026. While risk indicators are usually relatively stable, they do shift from time to time. The risk indicator will continue to be updated in future fund updates.

What fees are investors charged?

Investors in the InvestNow Foundation Series US Dividend Equity Fund are charged fund charges which are:

The charges outlined above represent the fees charged within the underlying ETFs (external management fees) that the underlying fund invests into and have been estimated based on information in the underlying ETFs' disclosure documents. Note that the fees within the underlying ETFs are not tax deductible. Investors are charged each time they make a contribution to (buy transaction fee) or withdrawal from (sell transaction fee) the underlying fund. These fees are charged to cover the costs of the underlying brokerage, foreign currency exchange, transaction costs and investment management service fees associated with investing in the underlying investments. The underlying fund's current buy and sell transaction fees are 0.50%

Investors may also be charged individual action fees for specific actions or decisions (for example, for withdrawing from or switching funds). See the PDS for the InvestNow KiwiSaver Scheme FS Core Equity Funds #2 on the offer register at https://disclose-register.companiesoffice.govt.nz for more information about those fees.

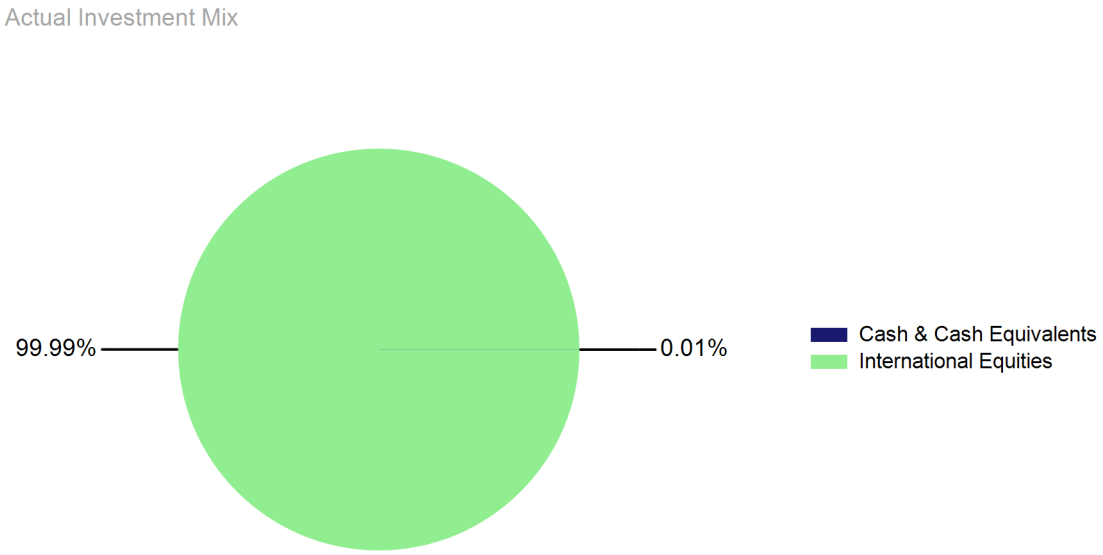

Example of how this applies to an investor

At the end of the year, Anthony received a return after fund charges were deducted of $2,688 (that is 26.88% of his initial $10,000). Notes

i. A combination of actual fund returns and market index returns have been used to determine the risk indicator as the fund has not been operating for the required five years. The risk indicator may therefore provide a less reliable indicator of the fund's future volatility. Market index returns have been used until July 2025 and fund returns thereafter.

ii. As the InvestNow Foundation Series US Dividend Equity Fund only started accepting contributions on 3 July 2025 historical fee information is not available. The fund charges represent our best estimates of the fees and expenses that will be charged to the fund. These have been estimated using information provided by the underlying fund manager and by reference to the underlying fund's disclosure documents.
