- (1) one day's interest at the interest rate for late settlement on the portion of the purchase price paid in the last-minute settlement; and

- Purchaser Default Late Settlement
- 3.12 If any portion of the purchase price is not paid upon the due date for payment, then, provided that the vendor provides reasonable evidence of the vendor's ability to perform any obligation of the vendor, the vendor is obliged to perform on that date in consideration for such payment:
- (1) the purchaser shall pay to the vendor interest at the interest rate for late settlement on the portion of the purchase price so unpaid for the period from the due date for payment until payment ("the default period"), but nevertheless, this obligation is without prejudice to any of the vendor's obligations (including any right to claim for additional expenses and damages. For the purposes of this subclause a payment made on a day other than a working day or after the termination of a working day shall be deemed to be made on the next following working day and interest shall be computed accordingly) and
- (2) the vendor is not obliged to give the purchaser possession of the property or to pay the purchaser any amount for remaining in possession, unless this agreement relates to a tenanted property, in which case the vendor must elect either to:
- (a) account to the purchaser on settlement for the purchaser's interest in respect of the property which are payable and received during the default period, in which event the purchaser shall be responsible for the outgoing relating to the property during the default period; or
- (b) retain such moneys in lieu of receiving interest from the purchaser pursuant to subclause 3.12(1), if the parties are unable to agree upon any amount payable. Under this subclause 3.12, either party may make a claim under clause 10.0.
- Vendor Default: Late Settlement or Failure to Give Possession
- 3.13 (1) For the purposes of this subclause 3.13:
- (a) the default period means:
- (i) in subclause 3.12(2), the period from the settlement date until the date when the vendor is able and willing to provide vacant possession and the purchaser takes possession; and
- (ii) in subclause 3.12(3), the period from the date the purchaser takes possession until the date when settlement occurs; and
- (b) in subclause 3.12(3), the period from the settlement date until the date when settlement occurs; and
- (c) the vendor shall be deemed to be unwilling to give possession if the vendor does not offer to give possession.
- (2) If this agreement provides for vacant possession but the vendor is unable or unwilling to give vacant possession on the settlement date, then, provided that the purchaser provides reasonable evidence of the purchaser's ability to perform the purchaser's obligations under this agreement:
- (a) the vendor shall pay the purchaser, at the purchaser's election, either:
- (i) compensation for any reasonable costs incurred for temporary accommodation for persons and storage of chattels during the default period; or

- (b) the purchaser shall pay the vendor an amount equivalent to the interest earned or which would be earned on overnight deposits lodged in the purchaser's lawyer's trust bank account on such portion of the purchase price (including any deposit) as is payable under this agreement on or by the settlement date but remains unpaid during the default period less:
- any withholding tax; and
 - any bank or legal administration fees and commission charges; and
 - any mortgage or loan taken out by the purchaser in relation to the purchase of the property;
- (3) if this agreement provides for vacant possession and the vendor is able and willing to give vacant possession on the settlement date, then, provided the purchaser provides reasonable evidence of the purchaser's ability to perform the purchaser's obligations under this agreement, the purchaser may elect to take possession in which case the vendor shall not be liable to pay any interest or other moneys to the purchaser but the purchaser shall pay the vendor the same amount as that specified in subclause 3.13(2)(b) during the default period. A purchaser in possession under this subclause 3.13(3) is a licensee only. Notwithstanding the provisions of subclause 3.13(3), the purchaser may elect not to take possession when the purchaser is entitled to take it, if the purchaser elects not to take possession, the provisions of subclause 3.13(2) shall apply as though the vendor were unable or unwilling to give vacant possession on the settlement date.
- (4) if this agreement provides for the property to be sold tenanted then, provided that the purchaser provides reasonable evidence of the purchaser's ability to perform the purchaser's obligations under this agreement, the vendor shall on settlement account to the purchaser for inclusions which are payable and received in respect of the property during the default period less the subclauses paid by the vendor during that period. Apart from accounting for such inclusions, the vendor shall not be liable to pay any other moneys to the purchaser but the purchaser shall pay the vendor the same amount as that specified in subclause 3.13(2)(b) during the default period.
- (5) The provisions of this subclause 3.13 shall be without prejudice to any of the purchaser's rights or remedies including any right to claim for any additional expenses and damages suffered by the purchaser.

- then the vendor may extend the settlement date:
- where there is a deferment of the settlement date pursuant to subclause 3.14, to the tenth working day following the date upon which the vendor gives the purchaser notice that the code compliance certificate has been issued, provided the vendor gives notice of the extension to the purchaser no later than the second working day after such notice; or

 - (2) withhold that amount from any residential land purchase amount and pay it to the Commissioner as RLWT.

- BEFORE SIGNING THE AGREEMENT
 - It is recommended both parties seek professional advice before signing. This is especially so if:
 - o there are any doubts, once signed, this will be a binding contract with only restricted rights of termination.
 - o the purchaser is not a New Zealand citizen. There are strict controls on the purchase of a property in New Zealand by persons who are not New Zealand citizens.
 - o property such as a hotel or a farm is being sold. The agreement is designed primarily for the sale of residential and commercial property.
 - o the property is vacant land in the process of being subdivided or there is a new unit title or cross lease to be formed. In these cases, additional covenants may need to be inserted.
 - o there is any doubt as to the position of the boundaries.
 - o the purchaser wishes to check the vermin/fitness and soundness of construction of any dwellings or other buildings on the land.
 - Both parties may need to have customer due diligence performed on them by their lawyer or conveyancer. In accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 which is best done prior to the signing of this agreement.
 - The purchaser should investigate the status of the property under the Council's District Plan. The property and those around it are affected by zoning and other planning provisions regulating their use and future development.
 - The purchaser should investigate whether necessary permits, consents and code compliance certificates have been obtained from the Council, issued by obtaining a LIM from the Council.
 - The purchaser should compare the title plans against the physical location of existing structures where the property is a unit title or cross lease. Structures or alterations to structures not shown on the plans may exist in the title being defective.
 - In the case of a unit title, before the purchaser enters into the agreement, the vendor must provide to the purchaser a pre-contract disclosure statement under section 176 of the Unit Titles Act.
 - The purchaser should check the habits of the body members of the body common property, check the body corporate's long-term maintenance plan and ensure whether the body corporate has incurred or proposed to incur for a long term maintenance fund or any other fund for the maintenance of, or replacement of, or other work to, the common property.
 - The vendor should ensure the warranties and undertakings in clauses 7.0 and 8.0:
 - o are able to be completed with and if not
 - o the applicable warranty is deleted from the agreement and any appropriate disclosure is made to the purchaser.
 - Both parties should ensure the checklist list in Schedule 2 is accurate.
 - Both parties should seek professional advice regarding the GST treatment of the transaction. This depends upon the GST information supplied by the parties and could change before settlement if that information changes.
- THE ABOVE NOTES ARE NOT PART OF THIS AGREEMENT AND ARE NOT A COMPLETE LIST OF MATTERS WHICH ARE IMPORTANT IN CONSIDERING THE LEGAL CONSEQUENCES OF THIS AGREEMENT.
- PROFESSIONAL ADVICE SHOULD BE SOUGHT REGARDING THE EFFECT AND CONSEQUENCES OF ANY AGREEMENT ENTERED INTO BETWEEN THE PARTIES.
